Wilkinson, Tracey

Dr. Tracey Wilkinson is an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at Indiana University School of Medicine. She completed her General Pediatrics Fellowship at Boston Medical Center and there began conducting research on access to Emergency Contraception for adolescents. After completing fellowship, she was in California for 3 years at Children's Hospital of Los Angeles where she primarily did clinical work and teaching. She ultimately returned to a research position at Indiana University and is now focused on work around contraception access for adolescents.
