

Chief Division of Neonatology - Clinical Associate/Professor and Chief

CLASSIFICATION TITLE:

Chief Neonatology - Chief and Clinical Assistant/Associate/Professor

JOB
DESCRIPTION:

The University of Florida, Department of Pediatrics, is seeking a Chief of the Division of Neonatology at UF Health Gainesville Florida as full-time faculty member at the tenure or non-tenure accruing level of Associate or Full Professor. The successful applicant will lead an outstanding faculty with broad research expertise including hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy in neonates, neonatal sepsis and inflammation, neonatal nutrition, neonatal hemodynamics and cost effectiveness. The ideal candidate will expand current research efforts within the Division. Clinical care will take place in the Level III-IV NICU at UF Health-Gainesville campus, a 68 bed state-of-the-art facility with a robust delivery service and support from all pediatric medical and surgical sub-specialties. Excellence in mentoring faculty and fellows, teaching medical students, residents, and fellows is expected. Salary and faculty rank will be commensurate with experience and academic qualifications.

The University Of Florida Department Of Pediatrics is dedicated to improving the health of infants, children, and adolescents through world-class patient care, leading-edge research, and patient advocacy. UF Health Shands Children's Hospital is No. 1 in Florida, nationally ranked in eight medical specialties including neonatology. Gainesville is a vibrant university community with diverse cultural and culinary offerings, easy access to nature, low cost of living, and no state income tax, all within 1-2 hours of renowned beaches and theme parks.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must have an M.D degree or equivalent and be licensed or eligible for licensure in the state of Florida, and be board certified in Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine.
